Few Engagements at the White House Now With Officials and Their Families Away

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Close of July and opening of August finds the President and Mrs. Harding under less social stress than they have been heretofore. Due to the absence of many official families and to hot weather, there are few formal social engagements at the White House. The President and Mrs. Harding are leaving the city to-morrow and will be gone about six weeks. They will travel throughout the West.

Among the recent arrivals at the White House are Sir Percy Daniels, of London; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Davis, of St. Louis; Mrs. Samuel L. Davis, Mrs. Lockwood Munroe, Miss Bertha Munroe and Mr. Warren Ripple, of Chicago.

Mrs. Howard Helms, of Pittsburgh, has left the White House and is now in Boston. Mrs. William B. Scatze has left the hotel and returned to Pittsburgh.

Dr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips, of 40 West Forty-seventh Street, have returned to their home from Boston, where they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Vernon.

Mr. C. I. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tudor, Miss Anne Tudor and Mr. John Tudor have returned to New York from a cruise through the Great Lakes.

Frank D. Arnold, secretary of the American Legation at Peking, is the guest of Mr. George Pratt Ingersoll, at his home in Ridgefield, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Naphe are receiving congratulations at their villa, Rockledge, at Narragansett Pier, on the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Naphe, formerly Miss Josephine Baker, of Worcester, Mass., Mr. Naphe is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Many Westchester residents motored to the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club yesterday to witness the golf match between Gene Sarazen, the new American open champion, and Cuthbert Hogg, the club professional. Among those who visited the links were Mr. John Drake, Mr. William Hamlin Childs, Mr. Oliver Harriman, Mrs. Herbert Pell, Mr. Alexander Biddle, Mrs. Trace E. MacGregor, Mrs. Courtlandt Taylor, Mrs. Elliot Cross, Mr. David Huyler, Mrs. John J. Corning, Mrs. Alva C. Dinkey, Mr. George W. Hill, Mrs. Gertrude K. Keller, Mr. Jackson B. Selig, Mr. Richard Sutor, Mr. William L. Walker, Colonel Robert B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Band, Mr. Alwyn Ball 2d and Mr. Charles D. Lanier.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Parrish Jr. arrived the last of the week and are the guests of his sister, Mrs. Archibald Brown, at her cottage in Shinnecock Hills. Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Shoenley will be entertaining at Clover Top. Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Hooker and Count Roger de Perigny, of Newport, who came by automobile for a visit of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson McCook Beard came Saturday to Eden Cottage, in Glen Lane, where they will spend August. They have been at Tuxedo for the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Shoenley, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Band, Mr. Alwyn Ball 2d and Mr. Charles D. Lanier.

Mr. Stephan Panaretoff, Bulgarian Ambassador at Washington, and Mme. Panaretoff, who is visiting in the States, are here for a few days. They will be at a luncheon given to-day by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bulfinch Hubbell at Brookside Farm, in Williamstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Johnson, of Boston, entertained at dinner for them to-night outdoors in a grove of birches at Braeburn, in Williamstown.

Mr. Stanton Garfield, of New York, and his wife, Mrs. Stanton Garfield, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield, of Concord, Mass., are staying with Dr. and Mrs. Garfield at President's House, in Williamstown.

Mrs. Robert Winthrop has Mrs. John G. Winthrop, of Boston, as her guest at the Greylock Hotel.

The final of the men's singles for the Herrick Cup, played on the courts of the Maidstone Club, in East Hampton, were won by Mr. Henry Randolph Sutphen Jr., who defeated Mr. James C. McQuire by the score of 8-6, 6-1.

The women's scratch singles for the John Drew Cup were played Saturday. Mrs. Spalding defeated Mrs. George A. Lembeck by a score of 6-3, 6-2.

She'll Attend the Saratoga Races

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d, who will leave Newport, Tuesday, to open her cottage at the northern New York spa.

dent and Mrs. Harding find time for a number of drives in the parks and the environs of Washington.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge are in Boston to-day with their sons, John and Calvin, and before the end of the week they will be on their way to the Pacific Coast. Their stay in the West will depend much on general conditions throughout the country and the call for the Vice-President in the capital. It is probable, however, that they will be absent for a month. Mrs. Coolidge is fond of all outdoor sports and up to the time of her departure from Washington she was a member of a group of Senate women meeting at the Washington home of Mrs. John B. Henderson every weekday morning for a swim in the pool.

There is little doubt about Mrs. Hughes accompanying her husband, Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State, on his trip to Rio de Janeiro for the opening of the centennial exposition in that city, for which President Harding has appointed a special committee. It is expected that a number of other women will be members of the party.

The Ambassador of France and Mme. Jusserand expect to sail for France this week.

The Ambassador of Great Britain and Lady Geddes will sail for this country Saturday and will go at once to Dark Harbor, Me., where they have a cottage for the season and where their children remained during their absence in England.

The Minister of Venezuela, Senator Dr. Don Santos A. Domini, who arrived from New York Tuesday aboard the Aquitania for Europe to take several months' vacation. The secretary of the Legation, Senator Don Luis Churruarín, will be charged with the duties of the minister. Senora Ines Domini, sister of the minister is still in her home in Venezuela, where she went in April, and will not return to Washington until the late autumn.
